

The National Ethnographic Museum in Warsaw and Museum for Children

the whole world in one place

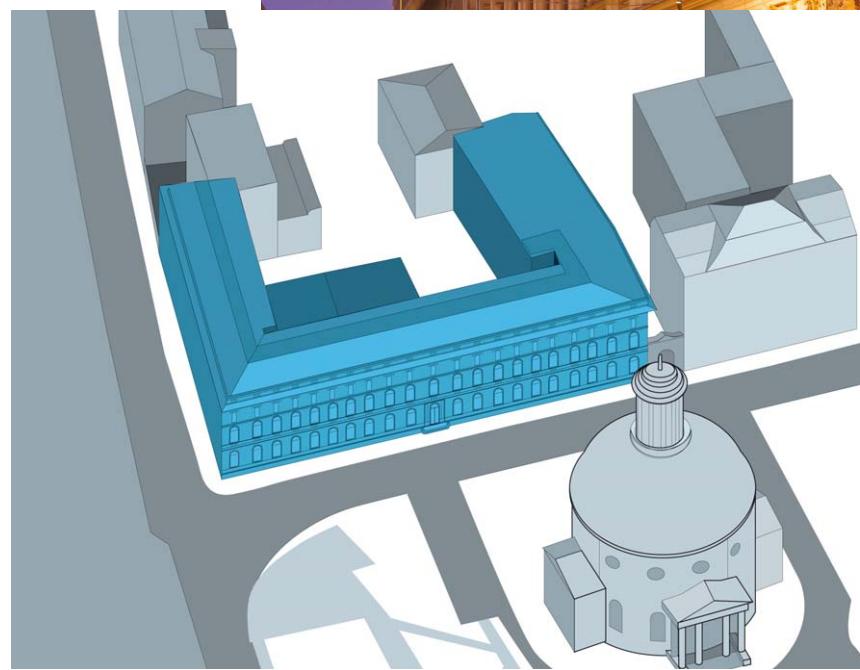

The BU[h]cbU Ethnographic Museum in Warsaw | GRAND RE-OPENING

In the center of the capital,
in the nineteenth-century historic building,
the largest and most modern ethnographic museum in Poland is located.

The BU[h]cbU Ethnographic Museum in Warsaw:

modernly equipped
child-friendly
accessible to people with disabilities

National Ethnographic
Museum
in Warsaw

Małachowski Square

1. The National Ethnographic Museum in Warsaw
2. Evangelical Church of the Augsburg Confession
3. Zachęta - National Gallery of Art
4. Raczyński Family tenement house

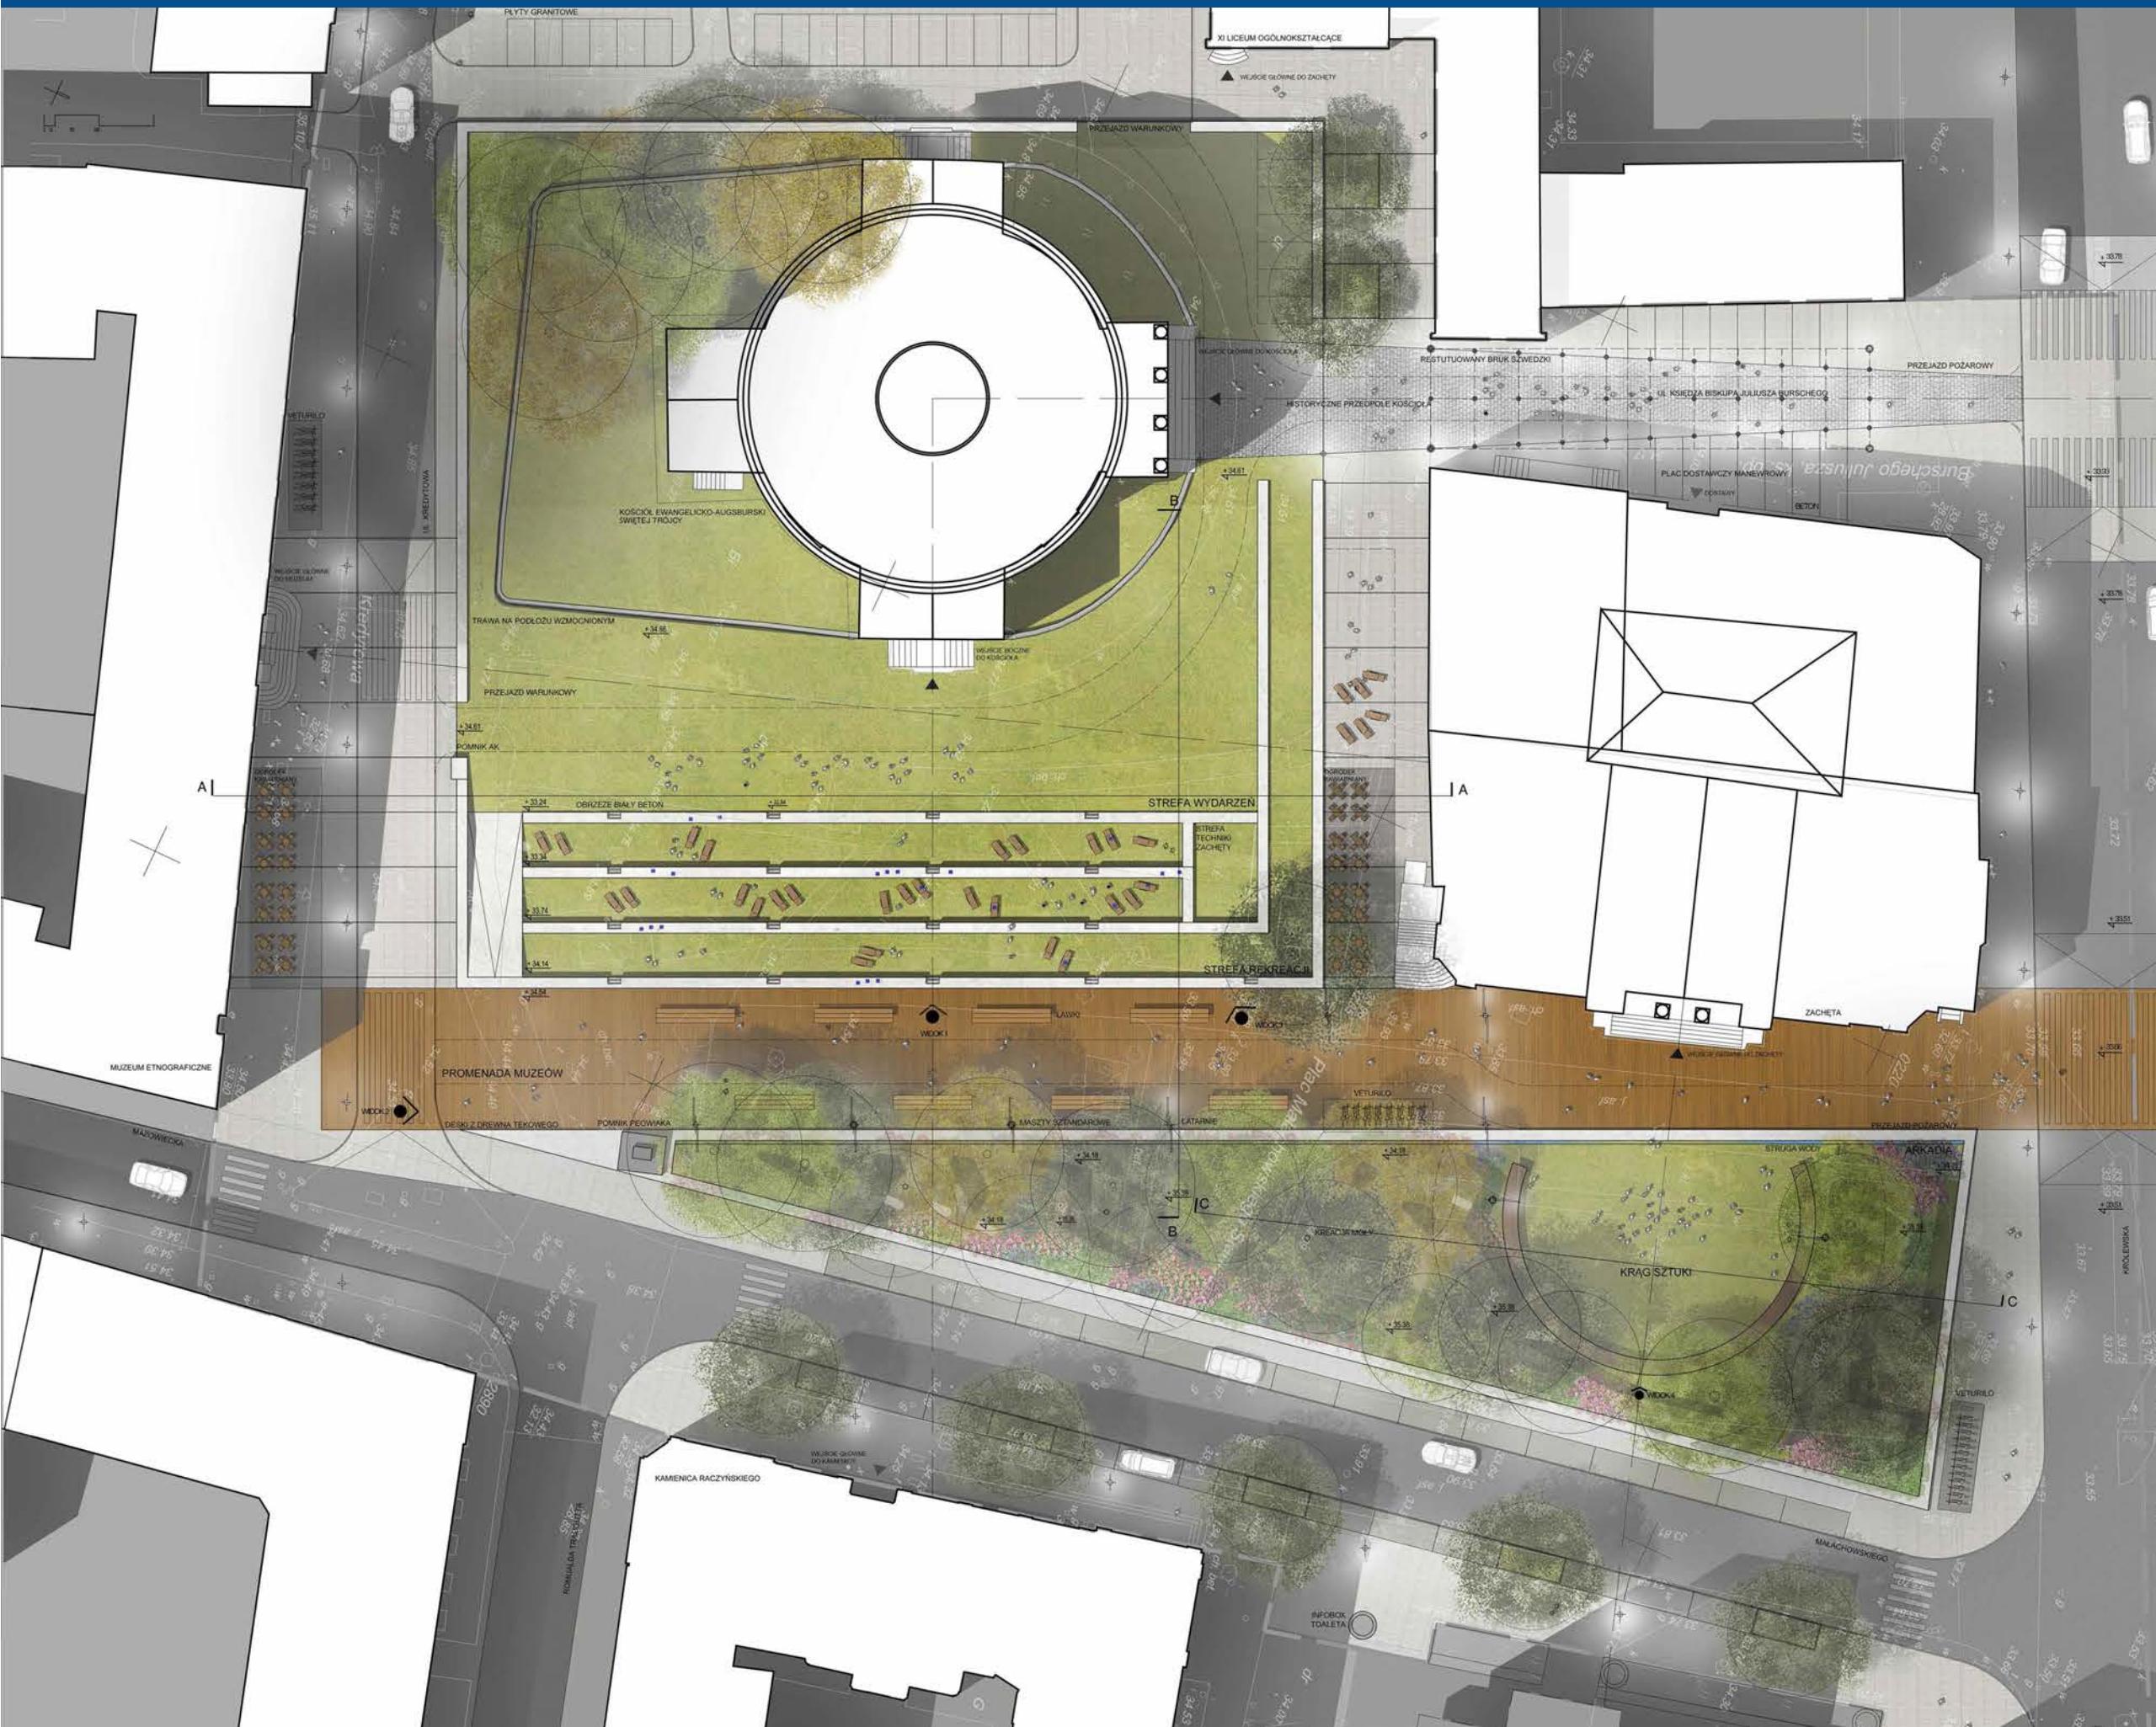

Małachowski Square

Convenient location of the Museum will gain an additional advantage due to the revitalization of the Małachowski Square. Owing to the union of institutions neighboring the square with the authorities of Śródmieście District, the Museum will soon become a very attractive place on the Warsaw's map.

National
Ethnographic
Museum
in Warsaw

National Ethnographic
Museum
in Warsaw

A concept design
of Małachowski
square
revitalization,
perspectives, ARE.

WIDOK 1

A concept design
of Małachowski
square
revitalization,
perspectives, ARE.

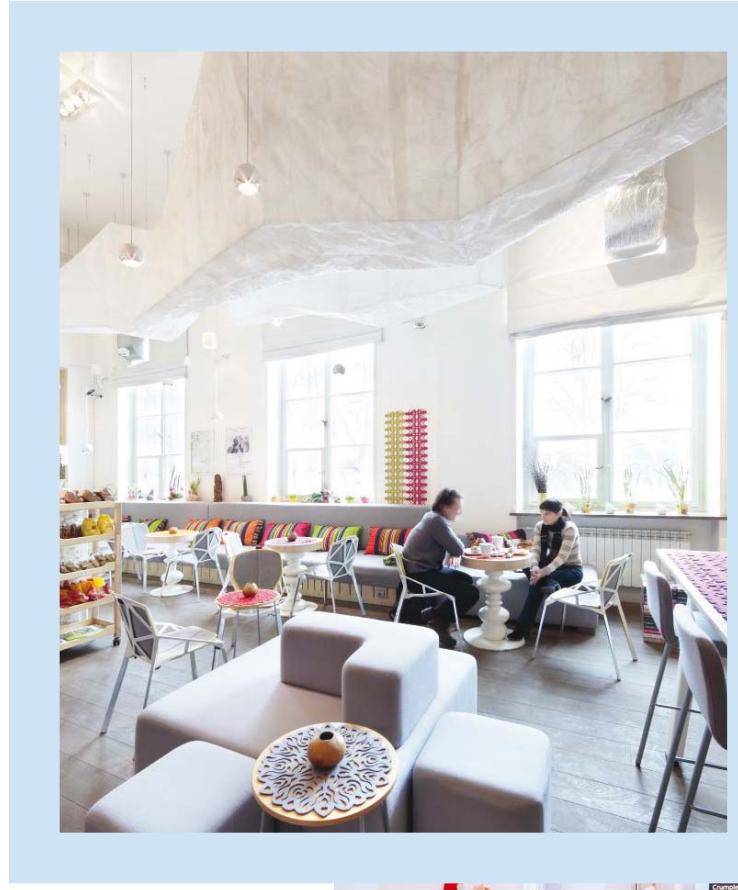

PME | main hall - reception

In the museum's main hall, opposite the main entrance, a modern fitted reception is located, where guests and visitors are welcomed by

Hatsune Miku – cult manga character dressed in an outfit inspired by Polish folk costumes, designed by famous fashion designer
– Teresa Seda

café-bookshop Bílý Koníček

On the museum's ground floor, in the main hall, a café-bookshop Bílý Koníček is situated. Uniquely designed interior helps in relaxation; meetings, lectures and book promotions are organized here.

cinema and conference hall

ground floor

area of 255 m²

number of seats: 220

modern presentation system

modular stage

purpose:

film and multimedia screenings,
conferences, academic sessions,
trainings and lectures,
dance, theater and music
performances.

National
Ethnographic
Museum
in Warsaw

patio

ground floor
area of 380 m²
Number of seats: 400

purpose:

temporary exhibitions
ethnic events
concerts
group dancing performances
multimedia installations
fashion shows
banquets

National Ethnographic
Museum
in Warsaw

Museum for Children main hall

Since 2013 in the State Ethnographic Museum in Warsaw the first Museum for Children in Poland, named after Janusz Korczak is situated. In the comfortably appointed, uniquely designed space children are getting to know the concept of a museum, how to move in it's space, they learn about the art from all over the world and diverse cultures.

National
Ethnographic
Museum
in Warsaw

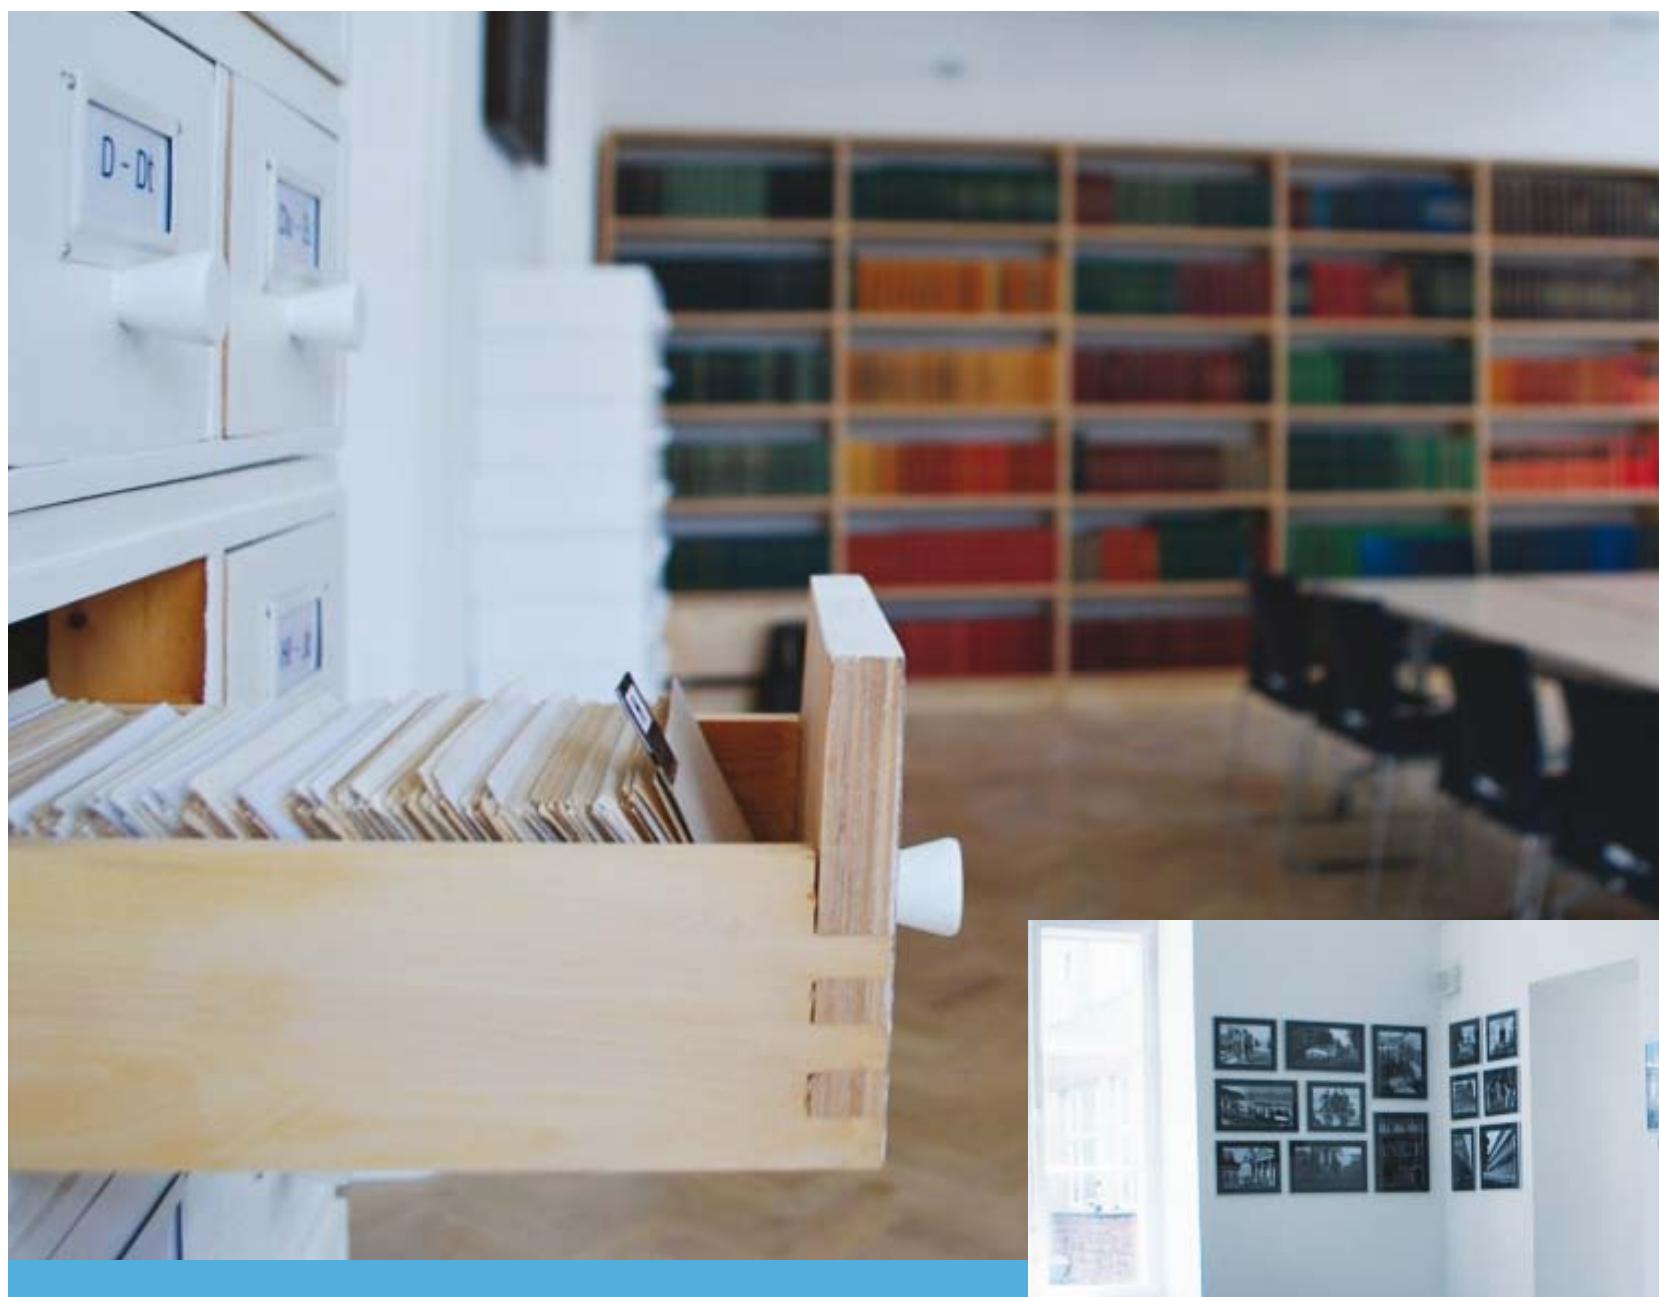

In the modern, two-storey exhibition hall, that refers to the big showroom aesthetics, you can admire a collection of the most beautiful folk costumes from Poland and Europe, ritual accessories, religious art, fabrics, decorative ceramics and woodcarving.

PME - exhibition Celebration Time

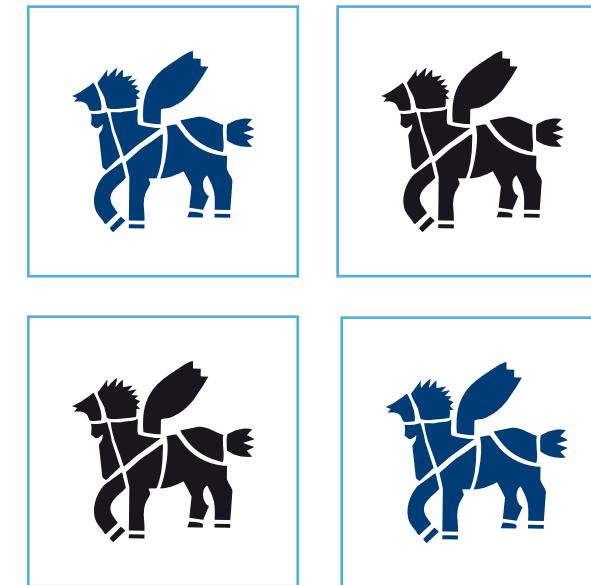

The permanent exhibition “Celebration Time in Polish and European folklore” was created in 2013 to celebrate museum’s 125th anniversary.

PME library | reading room

In the eastern wing
on the museum's first floor
is situated a modernly
designed library with a reading room.

thank you!

PROGRAM
REGIONALNY
NARODOWA STRATEGIA SPÓŁNOŚCI

Mazowsze.
serce Polski

UNIA EUROPEJSKA
EUROPEJSKI FUNDUSZ
ROZWOJU REGIONALNEGO

